- Informs the development of recruitment and retention policies

- Provides an accurate and up-to-date employment record with contact details (including details of who to contact in the event of an emergency)
- Ensures that The Wordsley School complies with duties in relation to individuals with disabilities, meeting its obligations under health and safety law, and ensuring that employees are receiving the pay or other benefits to which they are entitled
- Ensures effective general HR and business administration
- Maintains and promotes equality in the workplace
- Enables the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- Improves the management of workforce data across the sector
- Allows better financial modelling and planning

Some special categories of personal data, such as information about health or medical conditions, is processed to carry out employment law obligations (such as those in relation to employees with disabilities).

The lawful basis on which we process this information

We process this information under the following UK General Data Protection Articles:

6.1 (b) Processing is necessary for a contract you have with the individual, or because they have asked you to take specific steps before entering into a contract.

6.1 (c) Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject

For example: The Health and Safety at Work Act, Equality Act 2010, The Disability Discrimination Act

6.1 (e) Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.

For example: The Education Act requires the collection of workforce data for the purpose of Departmental Census. Working together to Safeguard Children Guidelines (DfE).

9.2 (b) Processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising specific rights of the controller or of the data subject in the field of employment and social security and social protection law in so far as it is authorised by domestic law or a collective agreement pursuant to domestic law providing for appropriate safeguards for the fundamental rights and the interest of the data subject.

Collecting recruitment information

The Wordsley School collects personal information in a variety of ways. For example, data might be collected through application forms, CVs or resumes; obtained from your passport or other identity documents such as your driving licence; from forms completed by you at the start of employment; from correspondence with you; or through interviews, meetings or other assessment. These collection methods include paper copy application forms and online / website portals such as WM Jobs and Talent Link.

In some cases, The Wordsley School may collect personal data about you from third parties, such as references supplied by former employers, information from employment background check providers, information from credit reference agencies and information from criminal records checks permitted by law (such as Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS)).

Will your personal data be sought from third parties?

Personal data is only sought from the data subject. No third parties will be contacted to obtain personal data pertaining to prospective members of staff without the data subject's consent.

Prospective staff members' personal data may be obtained and processed from third parties where the law requires the school to do so, e.g. medical records from a GP.

The categories of data obtained and processed from third parties include:

- Medical Records
- References
- DBS – Criminal Records

Where data is obtained from third parties, the personal data originates from the following sources:

- Local GP - medical check to indicate fitness to work
- Disclosure and Barring Service – regarding your criminal record, in criminal records certificates (CRCs) and enhanced criminal records certificates (ECRCs), whether you are barred from working in regulated activity
- Previous Employers – including details of any conduct, grievance or performance issues, appraisals, time and attendance, from references obtained about you from previous employers and/or education providers

- Home Office – immigration status and information from related documents, such as your passport or other identification and immigration information
- National College of Teaching and Leadership (NCTL) – (if you are a teacher, The Wordsley School will check the NCTL Teachers Services about your teacher status, whether you are subject to a prohibition from teaching order and any other relevant checks (for example Section 128 direction for management posts and EEA teacher sanctions)

Storing this information

We hold data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule. If you are successful, then how long we need to hold on to any information will depend on the type of information.

For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe, please refer to the school's data retention policy.

If you are unsuccessful, we will hold your personal data only for six months, after which time it is securely deleted. A copy of the school's Data Retention Policy is available on the school website.

Who we share this information with

Your information may be shared internally, including with those people responsible for HR and recruitment (including payroll), senior staff who you report to or who have supervisory / management responsibilities for you and business support and IT staff if access to the data is necessary for performance of their roles.

If you are employed by The Wordsley School, the information we collect may be included on our Single Central Record. In this scenario, the school's Privacy Notice (Workforce) in relation to data we collect, process, hold and share about you during your time with us, will be issued to you.

The Wordsley School routinely shares this information with:

- Our Local Authority
- The Department for Education (DfE)

Why we share school workforce information

We do not share information about workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Local Authority

We are required to share information about our workforce members with our Local Authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education (DfE)

We are required to share information about our school employees with the Department for Education (DfE) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

All data is transferred securely and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current government security policy framework.

For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.
